Las Cruces Teen Killed in Single Vehicle Roll-Over

Las Cruces – 18 y.o. Oscar Calderon-Hernandez of Las Cruces, New Mexico died early this morning from a single vehicle crash in Dona Ana County.

Just after 5:00 AM this morning State Police officers from the Las Cruces office responded to a single vehicle crash on the eastbound lanes of Interstate 10 MP 161 west of Las Cruces. The officers' investigation showed that Oscar Calderon-Hernandez and his two passengers 19 y.o. Edgar Aguilar-Soltero and 19 y.o. Edwin Hernandez also of Las Cruces were traveling on Interstate 10 in a 1990 Oldsmobile, when Oscar Calderon-Hernandez drove from I-10 onto the shoulder losing control of the vehicle, the vehicle went from a slide and rolled back onto the eastbound lanes of I-10.

The Office of the Medical Investigator pronounced Oscar Calderon-Hernandez deceased on scene; officers learned that alcohol was a contributing factor in the crash.
